När herdeflickan Cressida bad Gud om att få en vän som kunde hålla henne sällskap medan hon ensam vallar familjens får, kunde hon aldrig gissat att hennes nya vän skulle vara en stenstaty. Men statyn Diskus visar sig vara en vänlig och omtänksam vän. Samtidigt är han lite väl nyfiken och helt orädd för faror. Hur berättar man för en staty som nyss blivit levande att människor kan vara både elaka och farliga? Och hur skall Cressida göra när Diskus vill träffa aposteln Paulus mitt i det myllrande Aten? Följ Diskus - den levande statyn - och Cressida på deras äventyr i det antika Grekland, mitt bland romerska soldater och de första apostlarna.
